OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Get the news and get all the news and nothing but the news — From Dandy's Celebrated Martini in Journalism.

Democrats take Notice.

There will be a Democratic State meeting in Louisville on the 28th and 29th, in the County Court, at 1 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of electing Delegates to the State Convention, and also to take such steps as are deemed necessary in the election of a Judge of the Court of Appeals and Superior Court, and any other business that may come before the Convention.

By order of
H. F. BEYON, Chairman.

Our primary elections held in Louisville last week are reported as being the most corrupt that have been held there for many years. In the contest between Bennett Young and James Helm, candidates for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, votes were purchased at any price ranging from $15 to $200. If this be a true specimen of the manner in which the primaries of the Convention are to be chosen, what kind of a convention may the people have that have been framed for them. Some time since the universal cry seemed to be that men should be selected for the Convention because of their fitness and qualifications alone; but if this is to be changed and a man is compelled to buy his way in, a member of good need will get lost.

The labor situation in most of our largest cities is becoming somewhat alarming. During the past week thousands of laborers in Chicago, Philadelphia and other points walked out of the shops on a demand for higher wages and for the eight hour system of labor. The owners of the mills and manufactorys are holding out and the General Conference in session at St. Louis is adjourned.

Mr. W. K. Barnes is having a cellar put under his residence. Mr. Cicer is doing the stone work.

It is no business, Beard & Bevier are giving away Shakespeare's complete works. Call and see them.

Court adjourned last Friday morning, after the longest session we have had for several years. The entire term of three weeks was taken up.

Wheeler and Anti-Wheeler, come and let us quote you prices and show you our goods, and we guarantee there will be no disputing.

Sherriff Severs and his deputy, Charley Miller, and taller Edgar Tate went to Frankfort Monday with Jesse Harris and McDonald Robinson for the preliminary.

Mr. Alvin Nichols went to Fordsville to look and read. He thinks the Forthethills can be delivered here, but if this is no use as soon as possible.

The county convention which meets next Monday will elect delegates to the State convention which meets in Louisville the 28th. The county will give first instructions for George Madden for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

There is more talk in this section of the country than all other districts put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with ease, have given up the idea of a specific.

Mr. T. E. Dittie, after a week's visit to his family returned to Cumberland Gap, Tenn., last Thursday. His wife is visiting his parents here.

Mr. Jas. H. Miller, the porter, moved to Mansfield last week, and now the Consolidated Glass Company have full possession of their property.

Mr. Gant has bought all of Mr. H. T. Haynes' rigs for sinking wells. He loaded two of them on flats at Weldon to ship to Glasgow last week.

A negro living out near Ekon has his wife very badly ill, died Saturday night. It is thought she will die.

The negro was arrested and put in jail.

John Bruce and wife, Dow, got into a difficulty last Sunday night at Rock Hill. Bruce shot and killed Dow with a Winchester rifle. A reward of $100 is offered for the capture of Bruce.

There are ten apple brandy distilleries in this county, one of which is the largest in the United States. They pay a revenue tax of $50,000 annually. If the apple crop proves good this season there will be several more put up.

Col. Bennett Young accompanied by his wife and son, Jas. W. Lewis, came in on a special train to Louisville to examine the various points of the system. They came in hundred cars for any case it failed to cover. Seal for circulars and testimonials. Address, J. C. JENKINS & CO., Toledo, O.

Confection Blood Disease.

There are several blood, skin rashes, etc. are evidences of contagious blood disease. It is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poison from the system. The best way to do this is to use Sulzer's soap, which is made from the oil of Sulzer's soap to supply our soap and glass factories, the importance of such an enterprise can be understood.

The three things essential in a location for a soap and glass factory.

To these we add the best facilities for transportation.

These things we have, and of this the visiting gentlemen went away fully satisfied. They were astounded at the strength and power of our gas wells. The half had not been told them. Prof. Harvey was a doubleton Thomas until he had applied his instruments to the Ozark well, and found its pressure up to 1000 lbs. to the square inch, and its flow at the rate of 3,000,000 cubic feet per day.

As to the limestone they found our city surrounded by it, and so situated as to be inexpensively convenient to the proposed works, and to both railroad and river.

They took away with them specimens of the salt water found in such infinitesimal quantities in all of our gas wells.

Of course we have no salt water.

Mr. Kinney, Hatchets, Texas, writes:

"W. B. B. has earned my wife a large sum on her day doctors and oil other medicines since."

Mr. S. B. Roman, a prominent merchant of Greenville, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease, especially in children, that have been cured by Sulzer's soap skins since."

W. C. Bissell, of Co. Mayes, Okla., writes:

"Mr. Holt, Ward, of blood poison, effected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to my knowledge."

THE MACHINE SHOPS.

Mr. E. B. Ziegler, master of trades, Louisville, was down last week arranging for a new fine table to go into effect shortly.

The play roll for the machine shops amounted to nearly $5000 last month.

The inglenook had big runs last month and earned from $150 to $180. The men likewise swelled their earnings.

Mr. J. G. Harris has charge of the shops and is a very clever gentleman, and takes pleasure in showing visitors through the works.

There are thirty or forty mechanics with their families waiting and anxious to move as soon as they can secure suitable homes.

"None but sober, honest and reliable men are employed in these shops," said a prominent official and we won't have a man on our pay roll who won't pay his debts.

There are about forty men employed at the shop now and they haven't got fairly under way yet.

Five thousand dollars paid out here every month is a big thing for Cloverport it helps everybody.

Several of our home men have good places and make good wages.

The paint shop is about completed and it will require several men to run it.

The new comers are all well pleased with the town. They like the place and the people, and the only trouble is, how to move to move their families into.

Col. Bennett H. Young, who qualified before all difficulty and rises triumphant over all obstacles, has won our city for the first time last Monday. We flattered ourselves that he would appear at a place that did not fit in with the plan to rescue some of his unscrupulous and ignorant neighbors.

There may be some difficulty in getting him to stay longer, we would be happy to have you a glimpse the other day.

Col. Bennett H. Young, who qualified before all difficulty and rises triumphant over all obstacles, has won our city for the first time last Monday. We flattered ourselves that he would appear at a place that did not fit in with the plan to rescue some of his unscrupulous and ignorant neighbors.

There may be some difficulty in getting him to stay longer, we would be happy to have you a glimpse the other day.

Death of Little Claude Penrod.

Died in this city, April 24th, little Claude Penrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Penrod, after a few days of painful illness which he bore with great fortitude for one so young. To our beloved pastor and his wife we extend our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of their darling boy. He was full of promise to them, but their loss is his gain, and their resignation to the will of God is as sweet as religion. Funeral services were held on the 26th by Rev. W. C. Brandon, after which his remains were taken to the cemetery and buried.

RELATIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Baptist Sunday-school on the 4th inst., Messrs. S. P. Conrad, C. E. Lightfoot and J. E. Keith were appointed a committee to draft resolutions appropriate to the death of little Claude Penrod. The committee does not propose any resolutions for the child was but little known to us, we only in part wish to pay our tribute of respect to the departed and our love for Bro. and Sister Penrod; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of little Claude Penrod the Sunday-school has lost one of its pupils just as he began to learn his lessons.

Resolved, That we sincerely tender our sympathy to the bereaved parent in their affliction, and offer this solace, Though he can not return to them, they can go to him.

Dies from the hand no earthly voice can do."

For removing the system, eliminating all poisons from the blood, whether of serofluous or material origin, S. S. S. has won the name of "Goliath Liquid." To remove the system of poisons, the system of disease, beauty of form and clarity of skin. This is the long record of a purely vegetable remedy whose fame is widespread over two continents; which has retained its popularity for over half a century, its demand increasing at home, and orders coming for it where the English tongue is never spoken. S. S. S. speaks volumes for itself.

Swift's Specie, S. S. S. is not a moment of a brief day's existence, such as springing up like the sunflower, but thousands of testimonies from men, women, and even reputable physicians attest its solid worth as a remedial agent, and keep it at the front. What convincing evidence further can the afflicted world demand?

SOCIETY HILL, S. C., May 25, 1890.
BRECKENRIDGE NEWS: The warm days have set in here. The leaves on the trees are fully grown and the shades are refreshing, especially in the middle of the day. Rye and oats are headed out and will be in full flower when will be a full moon in this section.

I see farming here on a large scale than in your section of the country. Five hundred acres of oats belonging to one farm is a sight I never held before. Accompanied by my brother, I yesterday visited two miles from the village and saw a fine home, planting tobacco, and a large barn. The house is well built, but it does not fit well. The machine is pretty much like a Vandiver corn planter, but smaller and lower. The driver sits in front; in the rear is a barrel to carry water. A pipe is connected with the barrel and is worked by a lever. It makes a revolution and waters the ground around a foot wide behind the staves. There are two parts in the barrel occupied by two small negroes, and they alternately place the plants in a little drill and it presses the dirt to the plant closely, but it does not set the plants in the ground as tightly as hands usually do the old way. The weather is so dry the machine does not do good work as it is not in full condition. It would not work to pump. Some people here pay three times as much money in tobacco here as there is in cotton. One man says he made $6,000 on thirty acres of tobacco last year. It is cured up fine.

The Democrats are having a little family riot threatening a division, and if they divide, it is predicted the Radicals will get possession of the State again. Respectfully,

S. C. C.

ROCK LICK,

This laid weather for the farmers, Mr. W. J. Dean, Jr., in Louisville this week.

Miss Bettie Webb is in Louisville this week, shopping.

Miss Carrie Owen contemplates a visit to Hardinsburg soon.

Mr. Will Dean made a flying visit to Irvington last Sunday.

Messrs. Dick Owen and Jess Howard have returned from the mountains.

We wish the Rockville correspondent would "let up" on the McIntyre case.

Miss Annie Green, of Louisville, will soon take charge of the school at this place.

Mr. Tom Butler, of Shreve, Ky., paid another visit to prospective relatives last Saturday and Sunday.

There was no preaching Sabbath, brother held being detained at Lancaster, Ky., on account of the illness of his mother.

Mr. Ernest Robertson went to Hardinsburg last Wednesday to lay his case before the court. We hope the Judge will be Merciful.

The pound party of May 31, at Mr. Henry Dean's, was quite a success. The taste of the food was excellent, the good things and were highly deserved, with ferns and flowers and the spacious dining hall was a mass of evergreens. The whole house was illuminated, and Misses Sallie, Nella and Lou made everyone feel welcome by their usual genial hospitality. The young ladies were all elegantly attired. Below we give a description of the room: Misses Lou, Dick, black silk, pink lace, diamonds, and natural flowers; Lou Dean, light blue satin, cream lace overdress, natural flowers; Annie Owen, pearl grey silk and lace overdress, natural flowers; Miss Owen, black velvet with burn rose trimming, cream lace overdress, natural flowers; Misses Mollie, gold batik, white flowers; Carrie Morrison, cream silk, ribbon lace, velvet, cream lace overdress; Amanda Dean, cream serge, topaz ornaments, natural flowers; Anna Dean, sea foam green and cream silk, ribbons and flowers; Mattie Enderick, royal purple velvet, cream lace overdress; and the buyer. The beautiful combinations of colors, styles and designs are equalled only by the art galleries of Europe. There is life in it, as our entitles.

S. T. MOORE & CO.,

FURNITURE.

CARPETS.

YES, weigh this over carefully in your mind. Take into consideration our vast experience, our superior advantages over the regular dealer, and every man, woman or child who buys a dollar's worth gets the benefit of (to be modest and say the least) thirty-three and one-third per cent.

JUST THINK OF IT! We can sell you the very best Moquet for the same money you have to pay for a cheap Body Brussels; the finest Body Brussels at a Tapestry Brussels price; and the very finest Tapestry for what you have been paying for an ordinary Ingrain Carpet. This we can do, and are doing every day. A visit to our Rug Department is a treat in itself; amply repaying the critic, the sightseer and the buyer. The beautiful combinations of colors, styles and designs are equalled only by the art galleries of Europe. There is life in it, as our entitles.

Does It Pay to Get Mad and Stay

Yourself?

Once upon a time a certain man got mad with the colic and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his arm at four cents below the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he didn't read the sheriff's sales. He was arrested and fined eight dollars for not knowing it was tax sale, which was three dollars for a bill of exchange that had been advertised for two weeks, and the public can't afford to negotiate them. He then paid a big bill-buster, with a foot like a forger's hammer, to kick him all the way to the newspaper office, where he paid four years' subscription in advance, and had the editor sign an agreement to knock him down an inch if he ever ordered his paper stopped again. LODIBURG,

Allen Atkinson is very low with Kidney disease.

Willie Head, Jr., is sick with malaria and not improving at last account.

Mrs. Frank Claycomb has had several dangerous hemorrhages within the last ten days.

Mrs. Blakley Head is very low with consumption.

Mr. John Avitt is very low with consumption and not expected to live long.

Rev. D. Dowden preached at Walnut Grove Church Saturday and Sunday, to a fair congregation, considering the weather.

The farmers in this section are very much behind with their crops. They are rushing things now a taking advantage of the good weather.
